Dunwoody Celebrates July 4th with Annual Parade

Dunwoody – July 2, 2009 – On Saturday, July 4, 2009 at 9:30 a.m., the Dunwoody Homeowners Association and the Dunwoody Crier Newspaper will host the annual Fourth of July Parade featuring marching bands, floats, clowns, animal units and local celebrities. Last year the parade attracted over 2,500 participants and 28,000 spectators.

Spectators are encouraged to get there early, as there will be road closings. Mount Vernon Road between Jett Ferry and Dunwoody Village Parkway will close from 9:15 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. The parade route is 2.5 miles. It steps off from the intersection of Mount Vernon and Jett Ferry at 9:30 a.m., proceeds west on Mount Vernon to Dunwoody Village Parkway. The parade will then turn right and follow the right side of the median to Calico Corners, then turn left into Dunwoody Village parking lot. Volunteers will guide spectators to parade parking. It takes approximately 1 hour to walk the entire parade route.

Following the parade, spectators can enjoy a family friendly festival taking place at the Dunwoody Village featuring live entertainment, kid's activities, BBQ, hotdogs, and more.

For more information about the Annual Dunwoody 4th of July Parade please visit the Dunwoody Crier website at www.thecrier.com or the Dunwoody Homeowners Association website at www.dunwoodyga.org.
